Plaintiff,	:	CIVIL ACTION – LAW
vs.	:
	:	NO.
Woods Services,	:
Defendant.	:

COMPLAINT IN CIVIL ACTION

1. Plaintiff, Stephanie Moskowitz, is an adult individual currently residing at 516 Lombardi Road, Drexel Hill, Pa 19026.
2. Plaintiff, Samuel Moskowitz, date of birth June 27, 2003, is a minor child living at 516 Lombardi Road, Drexel Hill, Pa 19026.
3. Stephanie Moskowitz is the parent and guardian of the minor, Samuel (Sammy) Moskowitz.
4. Defendant, Woods Services, is a private residential facility located at 40 Martin Gross Drive, Langhorne, Pa 19047.
5. Woods Services is a 501(c)(3) non-profit multi-service population health management and advocacy organization that provides health, education, housing, workforce, behavioral health and case management services to more than 4,000 children and adults in the intellectual and developmental disability, child welfare, behavioral and brain trauma public health sectors.

6. Woods Services is in the business of providing support services for individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities.

7. Despite its proclamations that it provides quality and competent care to its residents, Woods has a well-documented history of abuse and neglect of its residents.

8. In fact, in October 2009 a student was killed after staff neglected to supervise him and he was run over by multiple cars. Less than a year later, in July 2010, another resident suffocated in a hot car when the staff responsible for his care failed to notice he did not exit the vehicle.

9. In fact, Woods has a culture of abuse and neglect which goes unreported and unaddressed because Woods promotes a culture and environment that discourages reporting abuses by its employees.

10. Prior to his admission to Woods Services, Sammy had a significant history of psychiatric, mental and cognitive disorders. More specifically, he was diagnosed prior to his admission with intermittent explosive disorder, autism spectrum disorder and unspecified depressive disorder.

11. Woods Services advertised and promoted itself as being able to handle and treat persons such as Sammy who have this type of condition and diagnosis.

12. Woods Services accepts insurance compensation and benefits for services it provides and therefore has a pecuniary interest in servicing clients such as Sammy Moskowitz.

13. Sammy Moskowitz was admitted to Woods in August 2016.

14. On December 20, 2016, Sammy Moskowitz was physically assaulted by Shawn Green, an employee and/or agent of Woods Services. More specifically, Shawn Green punched Sammy in the face and then used a bowling pin to strike him in the face.

15. Sammy was then transferred to St. Mary's Medical Center in Doylestown, Pa with an acute displaced transverse fracture of the nasal bridge and facial fracture to the orbital bone.

16. Sammy then followed up with treatment from Children's Hospital Department of Otolaryngology. Sammy has nose and sinus problems as a result of the aforementioned assault.

17. Since this incident, and because of the aforesaid incident, Sammy has suffered post traumatic stress disorder and has become increasingly agitated and violent and suffers from other emotional stress.

18. Sammy has developed serious trust issues and is afraid of any mental health worker because he fears for his safety due to this assault.

19. At all times material hereto, Defendant acted by and through its agents, employees and servants.

COUNT I ASSAULT AND BATTERY

20. Plaintiff incorporates the prior paragraphs as if set forth in full herein.

21. Woods, by and through its agents, employees and servants assaulted and battered Sammy causing certain injures. Namely, Shawn Green punched Sammy in the face and then took a blunt object, a bowling pin, and smashed Sammy in the face.

22. The assault and battery caused Sammy to incur serious and permanent personal injuries.

23. As a result of Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be prevented from attending to those usual and customary wants, duties, toils, labors, occupations and avocations in which Plaintiff previously engaged, thereby foregoing the pleasures and emoluments attendant thereto, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

24. As a result of the Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be required to expend various sums of monies for medical care and treatment in an endeavor to affect a treatment and cure of the aforesaid injuries and such other items of expense which have been incurred or which will be incurred and ascertained in the future, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

25. As a result of the Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has suffered severe physical and emotional pain, mental anguish, emotional distress and humiliation and may continue to so suffer for an indefinite time into the future, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

26. As a result of the Defendant's conduct, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be required to expend various sums of monies for such other items of expense which either have been incurred but have not as yet been documented or which are to be incurred and ascertained in the future, as well as loss of income and earning capacity, and various and sundry other losses and expenses, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

27. The conduct of the Defendant, as stated herein, was willful, wanton and malicious and in conscious disregard to the rights of the Plaintiff, allowing Plaintiff to recover and receive punitive damages from Defendant.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant, Woods Services, for compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs and any other relief the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances, in an amount in excess of the limits of Arbitration

COUNT II NEGLIGENCE

28. Plaintiff incorporates the prior paragraphs as if set forth in full herein.

29. The Defendant was negligent, careless and unreasonable in performance of their duties in the following respects:

- a) failure to provide adequate supervision and treatment to Sammy including, but not limited to, allowing Sammy to be assaulted and battered by an agent, employee, servant of Defendant;
- b) failure to comply with the needs of Sammy while he was a resident of Woods;
- c) failure to have in their employ individuals who possess adequate skill and training to properly interact with and supervise Sammy;
- d) failure to establish proper protocol to ensure that residents such as Sammy receive appropriate care and treatment;
- e) employing an individual who physically assaulted and battered the Plaintiff;
- f) failing to conduct background checks on its employees;
- g) failing to supervise its employees and allowing an assault such as this to occur.

30. As a result of Defendant's negligence and carelessness, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be prevented from attending to those usual and customary wants, duties, toils, labors, occupations and avocations in which Plaintiff previously engaged, thereby foregoing the pleasures and emoluments attendant thereto, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

31. As a result of the Defendant's negligence and carelessness, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be required to expend various sums of monies for medical care and treatment in an endeavor to affect a treatment and cure of the aforesaid injuries and such other items of expense which have been incurred or which will be incurred and ascertained in the future, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

32. As a result of the Defendant's negligence and carelessness, Plaintiff has suffered severe physical and emotional pain, mental anguish and humiliation and may continue to so suffer for an indefinite time into the future, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

33. As a result of the Defendant's negligence and carelessness, Plaintiff has been and may in the future be required to expend various sums of monies for such other items of expense which either have been incurred but have not as yet been documented or which are to be incurred and ascertained in the future, as well as loss of income and earning capacity, and various and sundry other losses and expenses, all to Plaintiff's great detriment and loss.

34. The conduct of the Defendant, as stated herein, was willful, wanton and malicious and in conscious disregard to the rights of the Plaintiff, allowing Plaintiff to recover and receive punitive damages from Defendant.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendant, Woods Services, for compensatory damages, punitive damages, costs and any other relief the Court deems appropriate under the circumstances, in an amount in excess of the limits of Arbitration.
